

NIT Srinagar celebrates Ganesh Chaturthi with great enthusiasm

Srinagar, Sep 20: The Socio-Cultural Committee, National Institute of Technology (NIT) Srinagar on Wednesday celebrated Ganesh Chaturthi with great enthusiasm. The campus came alive with enchanting Rangolis and vibrant paintings, showcasing the exceptional artistic talents of our students.

The festivities commenced with a heartfelt Ganesh Idol puja, bringing students and faculty together in devotion and unity. After traditional dance performances at Institute's Fountain Park and after that Ganesh Idol was carried with religious honor towards Common Hall where rests of the function were organized.

The mega was graced by Registrar Prof. Syed Kaiser Bukhari, who served as the Chief guest for the occasion. The Rangoli and painting competitions infused an extra burst of color and creativity into the celebration.

Students mesmerized the audience with their remarkable performances, and the spirit of creativity flourished in the painting and rangoli competitions.

The dedicated members of the Socio-Cultural Committee, including Prof. Atikur Rahman, Dr. Chilaka Ranga, Dr. Manoj Kumar, Dr. Nitika Kundan, Dr. Neeraj Gupta, Dr. Majid Hussain, Dr. Dassari Karthik, Dr. Vijay Kumar, Dr. Jaya Srivastava, Dr. Asma Iqbal, and Dr. Munir Ahmad Nayak, flawlessly managed all the responsibilities.

The event attracted participation from head of departments, teaching and non-teaching staff, as well as students from various departments, making it a truly grand affair.

Issued by PRO, Media Cell NIT Srinagar